

Aditya is an innovative company who works on projects with high concern on eco-friendly environment by creating sustainable development in Property and Infrastructures utilizing creative innovation design, technology and human interaction in order to create high added value for its stake-holders

In its early years, Aditya has already involved in several green city projects. One of them would be Bandung SkyBridge Project